

THE FIGHT FOR THE ENTHRONEMENT OF LAW IN MEMPHIS

FOUR LEADING PERSONALITIES

There are four persons who to-day deserve the unqualified gratitude and support of every patriot and Christian in Tennessee, because of the great fight made for the enthronement of law and order in the City of Memphis.

Governor Rye

First of these is the great, good man who is the Chief Executive of the State. Quietly, calmly, without passion or prejudice, but in the conscious power and dignity of righteousness and authority, he has moved straight forward in the performance of his duty under his oath of office as Governor of Tennessee. In addition to the magnificent letter, written to the Business Men's Committee of Memphis, who appealed to him to withdraw the Ouster Suit against Mayor Crump et al, no finer statement could be made than that of the Governor in replying to a commendatory speech made in Chattanooga, on the occasion of a meeting of the Southern Howard Association, which, in part, follows: "When I assumed the office of Governor I determined then, whether I did anything else or not, that there was one thing I would do, God being my helper, and that was, that I would retire from that honorable position with my own self-respect. I will do that which I honestly believe is right and let the consequences take care of themselves."

Attorney-General Frank M. Thompson

In heartiest sympathy with the Governor to enforce the laws of the State and the dethronement of official faithlessness and corruption, Frank M. Thompson, Attorney-General for the State began the Ouster Suit with an intelligence and intensity which promised to obtain early results. The quick results are most gratifying, and clearly indicate that the State of Tennessee has a chief law official who is thoroughly qualified for its most vital interests.

General G. T. Fitzhugh

When the discussion of securing legal counsel was broached, Gen. Thompson and Dr. McAllister, without a moment's hesitation, said that Gen. Fitzhugh was the man of the hour. With this view Gov. Rye thoroughly coincided. Gen. Fitzhugh took hold of the case, after the manner of a master lawyer, and he has again clearly proven his right to the title of one of the great legal lights of the Tennessee bar.

Dr. J. D. McAllister

In this mighty movement of the State against the faithless and lawless officials of Memphis it will be well for the moral forces of the State not to lose sight of the Anti-Saloon League. The Superintendent of the Tennessee Anti-Saloon League, Dr. J. D. McAllister, in an unofficial but most effective way, has advised and cooperated with the Governor, Attorney-General and Gen. Fitzhugh in every stage of the Ouster Suit. At the request of Gov. Rye, Dr. McAllister went with Gen. Thompson to Memphis and made personal investigation of conditions and was a unit with Gen. Thompson in the recommendation to the Governor that the State Institute Ouster proceedings, largely controlled and directed the investigation and in securing the evidence on which the State built its case, and has been an invaluable aid and associate to the State in the preparation and prosecution of its case.

Dr. McAllister came to the superintendency of the Tennessee Anti-Saloon League the first of January, 1915, assumed the duties of his office, without any beating of drums or blare of trumpets, but if the laws passed by the Legislature, the closing of the saloons in Memphis, Nashville and Chattanooga, the removal of faithless officials and effective prohibition evangelism count for anything, then it must be recognized that the League, under his administration, has accomplished vast results during the year.

The general activities for the ten months are summarized as follows:
Number of miles traveled.....60,731
Addresses delivered.....436
Conferences and committee meetings attended.....145
Cities, towns and communities visited.....454
Law-enforcement Measures Enacted by the Last Legislature.
Ouster Law.
Locker Club Law.
Soft-drink stand Law.
Liquor Drugstore Law.
Mississippi River Law.

Only a Beginning.
"We can't be as progressive as you say if we're taken up embroidering handkerchiefs."
"Why not?"
"Because that very seldom gets beyond the initial stage." — Baltimore American.

Chinese Thieves.
In China thieves who are caught stealing are compelled to make a tour of the neighboring villages with a board bearing an account of their offense clamped around their necks.

PRINCE ALBERT

the national joy smoke

Copyright 1915
R. J. REYNOLDS
Tobacco Co.

Here is another just-bleeted member of the Prince Albert "old-time jimmy pipe club." This is John O'Reilly, of East Providence, R. I., who has just passed the century mark. Mr. O'Reilly is one of those grand old men who has come to this ripe age with the joy of his friendly jimmy pipe fresh in his mind each morning. He has always been a liberal smoker.

Prince Albert is sold everywhere because the demand for it is universal. So wherever you happen to run short just drop in the nearest shop that sells tobacco and buy the tony red bag for a jiffy place, 5c; tidy red tin, 10c; handsome pound and half-pound tins, 20c; and that classy crystal-glass sound humidor with sponge-medicine top.

You uncork that sunshine tank

by letting some Prince Albert joy smoke sift into your system via a jimmy pipe or makin's cigarette, for you never got such fun out of tobacco in all your life.

Get that P. A. flavor? Get that P. A. aroma? Go to it mighty cheerful, because P. A. can't bite! Puff away like you hit perpetual motion in the first round! And keep fired-up till the cows come home. For it's surefacts Prince Albert never groused any other man's tongue and won't grouch yours!

Get P. A. jimmy pipe joy us and cigarette makin's happy, then you'll personally understand that no other pipe and cigarette tobacco ever was or ever can be like

Prince Albert. The patented process fixes that—and cuts out the bite and the parch. That's why pipe peaceful and cigarette peaceful men call

You be a sport and take a chance on this say-so, because you've no idea of the bully goodness, of the joy's satisfaction, of the contentment and restfulness and that sort of thing, that hits every man who gets chummy with P. A.

Hammer this home for what ails your smokeappetite, because you've no time to lose getting introduced to this real and true man-tobacco that's ace-high and a yard wide no matter how you swing on it, jimmy pipe or makin's cigarette!
